DRM-IMBUS-69

DRM-IMBUS-69

DRM-IMBUS-69 (Hex Socket Screw Cover Cap) is a decorative and protective plastic cap designed to conceal hex socket (Allen) screws according to the specified technical dimensions.

DESCRIPTION

It provides a clean and professional appearance by hiding exposed screw heads while protecting them from dust, dirt and external influences. Its easy installation improves production efficiency and enhances the overall finish of furniture and assembled products.

DRM-IMBUS-69 is widely used in office furniture, upholstered furniture, tables, metal structures and various furniture applications where exposed Allen screws require an aesthetic finishing solution.
